Synlait appoints Angela Dixon as Chief Financial Officer

Synlait Milk Limited (Synlait) has appointed Angela Dixon as its Chief Financial Officer, effective 15 June 2020.

Angela is an experienced senior executive with more than 20 years' experience in the financial, professional services and insurance sectors in New Zealand and the United Kingdom. In addition to the strong financial experience Angela will bring to Synlait, her areas of expertise include technology, strategy, retail finance operations and business intelligence.

Angela is currently Chief Financial & Information Officer at Public Trust. Prior to this, she held a range of senior finance, strategy and business performance and planning roles at IAG, NZX-listed Auckland International Airport, Telewest Communications, Royal Sun Alliance and PwC.

Angela has an active interest in equity investing for female-led New Zealand start-ups through the Angel investment network, and currently serves as Auckland's Regional Councillor for the Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.

Angela's appointment follows the resignation of Nigel Greenwood.
